

I. Multiple choice questions:-[1x6=6]

1. Animals that can digest food from plants as well as animals
a. Herbivores b. Omnivores c. Carnivores d. None of these
2. Diseases caused by air pollution
a. Burning sensation in eyes b. Asthma c. Itchy throat d. All of these
3. Bits of unburnt matter given out by something that is burning is called
a. cloud dust b. soot c. smog d. None of these
4. Gases which has colour
a. Chlorine b. Oxygen c. Gaseous form of Iodine d. Both a and c
5. Nitrogen in air is changed into _____ in the soil by bacteria.
a. water b. minerals c. waste d. carbohydrates
6. A doctor who looks after the teeth and gums
a. Surgeon b. Dermatologist c. Dentist d. Dietician

II. Name the following:-[1x6=6]

1. getting milk teeth –
2. the last bit of digestion takes place in this organ –
3. tiny particles around which water vapour in air condenses –
4. a broad, flat limb that some animals have for swimming –
5. smoke mixed with fog –
6. Fish that migrate from the sea to river water to lay eggs –

III. Define the following:-[2X3=6]

1. Food pipe
2. Cavities
3. Migration

IV. Write two examples:-[2X5=10]

1. Hibernating animals
2. Transparent things
3. Minerals essential for teeth
4. Animals that breathe through blowhole
5. Natural occurrences that pollute air

V. Correct the false statement:(Change the underlined word and rewrite the sentence)*[1X6=6]

1. Dentine is the hardest substance in the body.
2. Camel stores proteins in its hump.
3. Permanent teeth start appearing when a baby is about six months old.
4. Faeces live the body through rectum.
5. The stomach of herbivores produces a lot of acid to help in the digestion in the flesh.
6. Digestion starts in the stomach.

VI. Differentiate between:

[2X2=4]

1. Hibernation and Migration
2. Incisors and Canines

VII. Give reason:

[1x2=2]

1. Why are children and the elderly more affected by air pollution?
2. Why are the last molars called wisdom teeth?

VIII. Write short answers:(ANY FIVE)

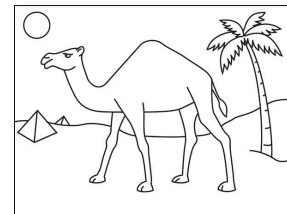

[2X5=10]

1. What is an omnivore? Give two examples.
2. What are the two jobs that teeth have?
3. Name the organs of the digestive system.
4. Which gas in the air stops things from burning up too fast?
5. Name two jobs that saliva does.
6. Name the two gases in air that help to keep the earth warm.

IX. Picture based questions:-

[3x2=6]

1. Identify this animal and mention the region in which it is found?
2. How does its long legs help in the desert?
3. What is the function of its thick fur?

X. Draw, colour and label the parts of a molar.

[4]

ALL THE BEST**

